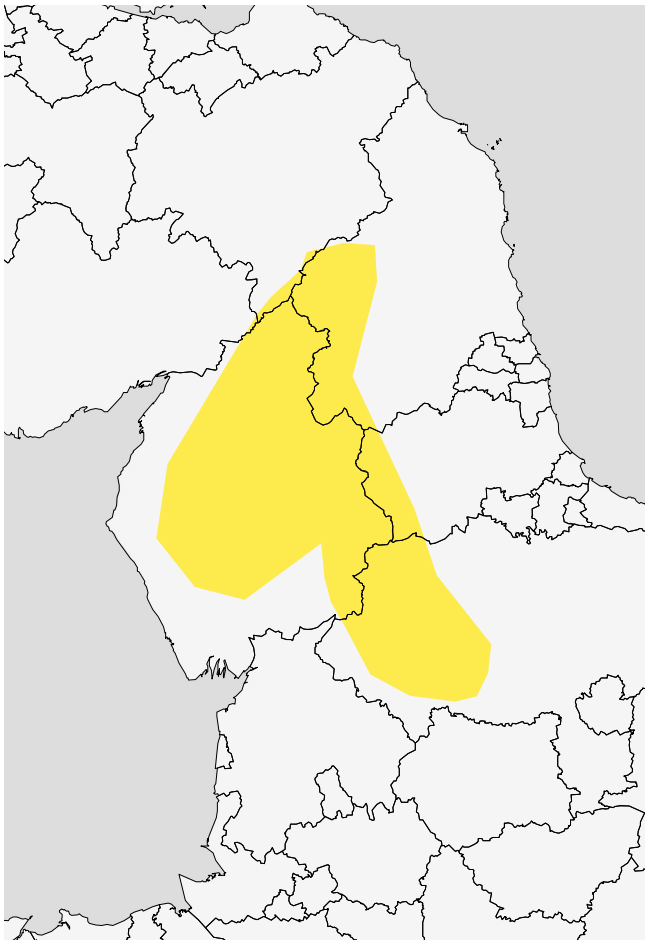
Yellow warning
Snow

Between
11:41 Thu 3 Dec 2020 and
09:00 Fri 4 Dec 2020



Travel disruption likely from snow, mainly over hills.

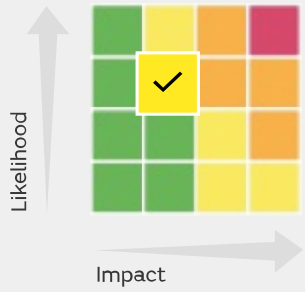
What to expect

- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services

Further details

Further spells of snow are expected over hills and mountains today before snow turns more widespread for a time this evening and overnight. Snow will then fade, turning to rain for some, later in the night and on Friday morning.

Today, a further 2-5 cm is possible above 300-400 m. Tonight, snow may briefly settle across areas as low as 150 m above sea level before the snow level rises as milder air arrives from the east. 2-5 cm of snow is then possible above 150 m, with transient sleet/snow at lower elevations. Steadily increasing amounts are likely at higher levels; perhaps as much as 5-10 cm above 400 m.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
